

MONO

MONO was founded by Daniel Kushner in the spring of 2006, on the ferry boat between Sausalito and San Francisco, to be exact. A self-taught drummer of over 15 years and a professional industrial designer, Daniel launched MONO to merge his love for music and design with a vision of creating innovative products for a new generation of modernist musicians.

The company's official launch at the 2007 Winter NAMM show in Anaheim California was met with overwhelming success in the form of international distribution, artist endorsements and grassroots support from the music community.

M80 SERIES

MONO's M80 Series is a new breed of hybrid instrument cases for music industry professionals. The M80 Series is the result of MONO's intuition and observations, combined with an obsessive industrial design and prototyping process, all to create the ultimate collection of gear for the touring musician. Each piece is engineered to shave off pounds of unnecessary weight (the M80 Electric Guitar case weighs a mere 83oz), while remaining rigid in all the right places to protect your most prized possessions. Indestructible materials, lightweight construction, smart features.

M80 DUAL GUITAR CASES

A second guitar is a must-have on stage or in the studio. But in transit, carrying two guitars has always been a necessary evil. We set out to design an elegant solution to this problem. Our driving criteria was to offer each guitar the same protection as our single M80 hybrid case. After a year of prototyping, the Z-form™ design was perfected (patents pending). The end result is an incredibly light weight, extremely rugged double hybrid case. A first of its kind.

Z-form™

This “zig-zag” design creates a completely separate case for each guitar. That means both headstocks are protected with MONO's Headlock™ feature and strap pin bumpers. It also means the M80 Dual can be used with 1 or 2 guitars - something you'll appreciate on the road. The Z-form design allows for immediate access to either guitar as well. The first guitar is accessed on the left side of the case, while the second guitar slots into the right side.

MONO GS1

In 2007 MONO set out to design a guitar strap, aimed at providing the ultimate playing experience, to act as the on-stage counterpart to our M80 guitar cases. The Betty was born, taking comfort to a whole new level, and making heavy instruments feel light as air. This year we continue our quest with the lauch of the Doolittle and Warsaw models, which in turn act as the perfect counterpart to the Betty. With 3 timeless designs in the collection, the GS1 guitar strap series is unified by fine details and luxurious materials, combined with clean lines and rugged construction. An extension of you.

GS1 'BETTY' STRAP

The GS1 Betty Strap features a wide wale design which distributes the weight of heavy instruments. A thin memory-foam core provides luxurious comfort. The smooth Neoprene underbelly lets the shoulder breathe and slides nicely across your shirt and skin. A hidden "pick pocket" houses an emergency stash. All Betty Straps feature matte black steel hardware and are available in 3 custom materials: Sharkskin™ (Jet Black or Steel Grey), Duraweave™ (Ash) and Ultra-suede (Smoke or Clay)

Features:

- Wide wale design distributes weight of heavy instruments
- Memory foam core increases circulation and reduces fatigue
- Neoprene underbelly reduces friction and allows for airflow against skin
- Hidden "pick pocket"
- Adjustable length
- Steel hardware

GS1 'DOOLITTLE' STRAP

The Doolittle is designed to wear well over time, conform to the wearer, and become more comfortable the older it gets. Using a 2" wide weave of reinforced cotton, clean lines and industrial materials complete the minimalist aesthetic. Custom dyed colors offer a tasteful palette of options to fit any guitar, on any occasion. In order to create something luxurious and refined, the smallest details need to become the biggest considerations. For the Doolittle, this means the industrial elegance of woven cotton, the way the die cut rubber end panels grip the guitar pins, and the way the light catches the brushed nickel custom buckle (the lower buckle is ABS plastic to avoid scratching the guitar.) No animal products are used in the Doolittle, or any other MONO designs.

Features:

- 2" wide reinforced woven cotton
- Industrial rubber die-cut end panels
- Fully adjustable length
- Custom hardware

GS1 'WARSAW' STRAP

The primary material used in the Warsaw Guitar Strap is the same indestructible nylon webbing used for automobile seatbelts. The slinky, slippery feel of the seatbelt makes for a uniquely comfortable playing experience. An alternating vertical weave creates a metallic shimmer as it catches and reflects light. The iconic design and custom hardware details makes the Warsaw a striking addition to your stage presence, while the industrial materials withstand a lifetime of abuse.

- 2" wide nylon seatbelt webbing
- Industrial rubber die-cut end panels
- Fully adjustable length
- Custom hardware
